

Public Management & Civic Leadership Graduate Certificate

Effective Fall 2022

The Certificate in Public Management & Leadership Studies prepares students for the evolving nature of civic leadership through coursework and practice that emphasizes relationship building, change management, global dynamics, intercultural understanding, and collaboration.

The goal of this certificate program is to foster civic leadership and engagement in the FIU student body by encouraging a consideration of leadership from multiple perspectives and contexts. Through involvement with the campus and greater community, students will become engaged in their own professional leadership education and development.

Required Core Course - 12 credits
PAD 5043	Equitable and Inclusive Governance
PAD 5416	Social Equity and Human Resource Management
PAD 6436	Leadership and Decision-making
PAD 6907	Independent Study

Electives – 3 credits
PAD 5435	Gender Equity and Leadership in Public Administration
PAD 6053	Political, Social, and Economic Context of PA
PAD 6156	Applied Organization Theory and Behavior
PAD 6436	Professionalism and Ethics
PAD 6209	Financial Management in Public and Nonprofit Organizations
PAD 6605	Administrative Law and Procedures
PAD 6710	IT & E Government
PAD 6807	Urban and Municipal Government Administration
PAD 6946	Public Administration Internship

Requirements

The Certificate Program requires completion of 15 credit hours of coursework (“B” or better required) and must complete an advising meeting prior to enrollment to outline their professional development, training, and community engagement goals.

Students will meet with a Certificate Advisor at least once a semester to report their progress and prepare a portfolio artifact (e.g. policy memo, website, infographic) to be submitted in their final semester.

Students will be expected to attend at least six (6) approved FIU Student Conferences, educational training and/ or seminars and document completion of one community engagement project prior to completion.